Phi Beta Kappa Teaching Award
Faculty Nomination Form
Form due: March 18, 2016

Nominator Name: _________________________________________________________

Department: _____________ Phone: _____________ Email Address: ________________

Nominee Name: __________________________________________________________

Department: ________________________________ Email Address: ________________

The Phi Beta Kappa society is an academic honor organization with the mission of "fostering and recognizing excellence" in the undergraduate liberal arts and sciences. Please tell us how this faculty member has impacted and enriched liberal arts and science education for undergraduates. Preference is given to tenured professors in the College of Letters & Science.

In addition to your nomination letter please submit the Nominee’s C.V., letters of support by students taught by the nominee are encouraged.

The selected winner will be honored at the PBK induction ceremony on April 9, 2016 from 3:30 PM – 5:00 PM. Traditionally, an undergraduate student gives brief remarks and bestows the award plaque and a $500 prize. The winner is also invited to the banquet following the induction, however, this is not required.